CD-Box of the meanwhile hard to get albums "Fat Sound" und "Don't Konck The Baldhead" coming up in a noble glossy black collectors box at the price of one CD. Jubilee edition at the occasion of the 15 years Pork Pie Jubilee.

FAT SOUND: This tops it all!

"Fatty" Buster Bloodvessel, musical heavyweight champion of all genres, covers international hits such as "Lola", "I Can't Stand The Rain" or "Feel Like Jumping" in the form of groovy ska versions.

For "S"karaoke fans and "Lou-Bega-skinheds" there's an ingenious instrumental ska version of "Mambo No. 5" which yet again displays Buster's foresighted talent for spotting hits. Plus last but not least, his hit "Skinhead Love Affair" that can also be heard on the Pork Pie "The Spirit Of Ska" compilation.

DON'T KNOCK THE BALDHEAD: Five years after the "Fat Sound" album, Buster Bloodvessel, cult figure from the 2Tone era, returns with a magnificent masterpiece.

Bad Manners, one of the most successful English 2Tone bands, has managed to maintain its cult status till the present day instead of becoming total sell-outs by making desperate comeback attempts like many of its peers. Fatty's new album "Don't
