

The Spirit Of Ska

Title: Porno 75
Artist: Skaos
Label: Pork Pie
Cat.-No. 05637-2
Format: CD
Release: 24.3.2000

1. Intro 0:22
2. Too Late 2:34
3. Come and See 4:41
4. Open Up Your Legs 4:25
5. Swinger Club 4:37
6. Porno 75 4:43
7. It's Alive 4:14
8. Boosting Blaster 3:54
9. Jump Up 4:24
10. Don't Care About Them 3:11
11. Cucuzza 2:01
12. Backdoor Baby 3:34

13. Ride On, Ride On 4:06
14. South Africa 3:41
15. Stay With Me 3:07
16. A Global Warning 4:01

Skaos undoubtedly count as one of the world's most outstanding bands of contemporary ska. There's hardly any band around that sounds as fresh and pristine on its fourth album as Skaos does. With Porno 75 the "Invincible Seven" have certainly recorded one hell of a wicked album, offering 15 tracks of groovy ska with almost an hour playing time, and one that is danceable from the first to the last note. One reason for this may be that the band has already included some of the songs in their live repertoire and these have thus successfully passed their baptism of fire on stage. Skaos have retained their typical style displaying a wide variety of arrangements and powerful brass section passages, but also distinguish themselves as a cut above the rest of other ska bands by making use of stylistic elements from South America, the swing or hard punk guitars. On top of that the album features a brilliant new arrangement of the Skaos classic "South African Struggle" and an amusing cover version of the Louis Prima hit "Cucuzza".

